

We'll start by learning the most important elements of a drum groove

... with bass and snare drums keeping the beat....

... and some cymbals to hold it all together